A Difference of Opinion About the Terms of Postmasters.

OPPOSING

The Postmaster General Holds That Present Incumbents Should Serve Four Years, Regardless of Date of Commission - Applicants for Treasury Places.

Postmaster General Gary and the First Assistant, Col. Heath, are said to be an able to agree upon the length of time which certain postmasters, appointed by President Cleveland late in his Adminis tration, shall be permitted to serve. There is a considerable number of these officials who were appointed to vacancies since January, and some of them were confirmed a very short while prior to the inauguration. The vacancies occurred from resignations; deaths and removals.

Col. Heath holds that in all such case the appointees should be permitted t only ontil the close of the original That is to say, if a man seeceeded to an office in December ast in which the original Democratic incumbent would have served but six months langer. he latest appointer should be perm to serve out that term only. In this Col. Heath is supported by the Republican Congressmen and politicians generally,

The Postmaster General takes another view of the matter, however, and so far be and the First Assistant have failed t orogramise. Mr Gary insists that every postmuster shall serve the full term of four years, no matter how late he may have been confirmed, with the exception of such as may have been mutually ar ranged otherwise, in order to insure coirmation, and there are several such. Mo Gary, unless he shall change his mind, will decline to disturb the present incumbents until they go out of office by expiration of the terms for which they were commis-

The appointment of Supt. Hancock, of tionery division is causing considerable the Interior Department. The promotion was made by Secretary Bliss personally and before his Pension Commissioner had been appointed, a rather unusual thing it itself. But an even more peculiar circum stance is the fact that Mr. Hancock is Democrat and a sliver man at that.

The reason of the interest that Secretary Bliss takes in him is thought to be that he is a brother of Gen Hancock, who was a personal friend of Secretary Bliss. Mr. Hancock entered the Pension Office

The plot takes for the basis of its action a story, which had its prototype in real life. The love interest is rong, the consedy sparkling, the dramatic and sensational climaxes thrilling, and it s presented by a very powerful company and magnificent scenery, equal to any-thing ever used on the stage in this country. There are eleven scenes, all of which are carried by the company, and we cars are required for the transportation of these effects. The piece has already run for more than sixteen months at the Princess' Theater, London, and it also enjoyed long and prosperous stays when it was first produced in this country in New

One of the most important developments of the day was that the President has about decided to appoint Gen. Herbert W. Bowen, of New York, as minister to Spain Mr. Bowen is at present consul general of the United States at Barcelone. He was apcointed a consul to this port by Presider Harrison, and during Mr. Cleveland's term of office was advanced to the nonion he now holds. Mr. Bowen was in Barcelona at the time of the extraordinary canifestations of hostility against the United States consulate on the 1st of March, 1896, after the passage of the Morgan resolutions in the United States Senate, recognizing the Cuban ins Owing to the fact that this was Calenet day but few officeseekers and politicians called at the White House. The President was busily engaged up to 11 o'clock when the members of his official family began to arrive. Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, was one of the fortunate ones who obtained an interview with Mr. McKinley whispered a few hurried words into the parture. It is thought that his visit was for the purpose of orging the app of Capt. Thomas, of Pennsylvania, for the position of Public Printer.

When ill-health precedes maternity, death rocks the cradle. If a woman suffers from neglected disease or weakness of the tinetly feminine organism during the perio tractly feminine organism during the period preceding motherhood, she not only risks her own life, but that of the unborn babe. Thousands of women suffer in this way because their natural modesty will not permit them to undergo the humiliating examinations and local treatment upon which nearly all physicians insist.

This is entirely unnecessary. An eminent and skillful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, the invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., is the discoverer of a wonderful medicine for all troubles of this nature without recourse to obnoxious local treatment. The medicine is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly and only on the delicate and important organs that make wifehood and mother-bood reasible. It makes them strong ant organs that make whenous and monte-hood possible. It makes them strong, elastic and healthy. It fits a woman for motherhood and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. THE offering we make today in boys' waists will cast in the shade any that we've made heretofore. A lot of boys' percale shirt waists in pretty figured patterns, and lot of white muslin shirt waists with linen collars and cuffs -- both sorts have pleated back and front-as good as any waist we ever knew to sell for 50c-will go for
